THE WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. George Hartman, Sr., entertained the members of the Current Literature club on Friday. Roll call was responded to with quotations appropriate to the season, or events of more than passing interest. The study review was on early German literature and was conducted in a pleasing manner by Mrs. Theresa Starkweather.

Mrs. J. F. Robinson gave in an able talk, a comparison of Herder and Lessing, also briefly outlining "Miss Sara Thompson, Nathan der Weise," and "Lacoon." An interesting paper on "Current American Fiction," was read by Mrs. G. I. LaDow, which was followed by a general discussion. Miss Jessie Hartman and Miss Bertha Alexander charmingly sang "Teasing" and "Goodbye, My Lady Love," which completed a delightful afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

The Current Literature Club will meet with Mrs. James A. Fee on Friday, January 6. This will be the first of a series of afternoons on German literature, and will consist of a study of the beginning of music in Germany and a discussion of Handel and Haydn, with selections from their works.

The Thursday Afternoon Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Minnie Stillman on Thursday, January 5. "Picturesque America" will be her subject.

The Musical Club afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Dickson, on Friday, proved to be one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The afternoon was devoted to the music of Chopin and Dudley Buck, with the exception of numbers rendered by the visiting guests, Miss Elizabeth Van Antwerp, of Spokane, and Miss Baumeister, of Walla Walla, whose numbers on the program were selected.

The program was as follows: Selected Piano solo Mrs. Marshall Vocal solo—"Shoogy Shoe" Anbroute Miss Bertha Alexander.

Life of Chopin Mrs. Marshall Vocal solo—"Spring's Awakening" Dudley Buck

Mrs. Marsten.

The Revolutionary Etude Chopin Vocal solo—"Sunset" Dudley Buck

Miss Fraker.

Waltz Miss Baum.

Song—"Come Where the Lindens Bloom" Dudley Buck

Polonaise Op. 26 No. 1 Chopin Vocal solo—"Kiss Waltz" Ardu

Miss Baumeister.

Every number on the program was exceptionally well rendered and several responded to encores. There were a number of invited guests present who shared the pleasure of the afternoon with the club members.
